They became the traitored legions of the spatial marines of chaos that today threaten the Empire. An accurate and pre-established training was never really achieved. During the massacre of the fall place, the XVIII legión suffered almost a total loss, rated by some sources as up to 98% of the staff of the Legión Space Navy. 6, 9-12, 14, 16, 18-19, 21 CODE: Dark Angels (4th edition), pp. This initial foundation occurred before the start of the Great Crusade that brought together the scattered worlds of humanity under the flag of the man's empire, while the unification was continued to sweep on Terra. Very often, the practical reality of its disposal would vary more since the terminology used within the different legions for equivalent ranges and specializations carried the brand of the legion ranking instead of the wishes of the administrators Central of the Empire for a common nomenclature. 6-9 CODE: Space Marines (4th edition), pp. 6, 9-12, 34, 62, 175 CODE: Blood Angels (5th edition), pp. Apart from the many wounded, it is recorded that a number had succumbed entirely during the prolonged combats to a thirst for demented blood and had to be retained by force and returned to the Fleet of World Eaters for the containment of it. 6-7, 9-11, 60 CODE: Space Wolves (5th edition), pp. XIX Raven Guard None Loyalist When Guard Raven engaged with the fall of Istvaan V, they made him in numbers that approached his full force, just less than 80,000 legionaries, with all assets, both surface and spatial, in assistance. GenA © Rico Space Marine Legion Battle Order For Throw's Average Years of Grand Crusade, there was great variation in the battle order and size of each space marine legion. Training, indoctrination and the shared battle experience reinforced this belief within the Astartes, promoting the idea that they were a family born in the birthplace of the war. As such, the simple truth was that more Space Marines were needed and needed to be created faster than before. The XII Legion was originally known as the War Hunters by the Emperor before Primarch Angron renamed them the World Eaters. The second face of each Legion was that of the people and cultures that had flourished under different stars. A sense of unity and an almost familial bond permeated their ranks. XV Magnus the Red Thousand Sons Traitorous Prospero Magnus the Red reached apotheosis and was transformed into a Demon Prince of Tzeentch. The approximate manpower available to several of the Space Marine Legions at the beginning of the Horus Heresy in the early 31st Millennium is recorded as follows, from the largest Legion to the smallest: Legion Number Former Legion Cognomen Loyalty Legion Force XIII Ultramarines Loyalty Warborn By 899.M30, the Ultramarines numbered some 166,000 Astartes, which placed them in the forefront of their peers. This role changed after the Second Founding, when the Astra Militarum replaced the Legiones Astartes as the front-line armed forces of the Imperium, relegating the much smaller space marine chapters to a more specialized role as special operations troops. This means that if the Word Bearers had managed to maintain their ranks at around 100,000 Chaos Space Marines, this would imply that the Black Legion has greatly increased its overall size since the Horus Heresy, with a primacy of around 1 million Traitor Legionnaires. 6-12 CODE: Space Marines (7th Edition), pp. IV Perturabo Iron Warriors Olympia Traitor Perturabo reached apotheosis and was transformed by the will of the Dark Gods in Prince demon of undivided chaos. This source also affirms that some of the detachments that fought on the Grand Crusade in other parts of the Empire were going to be destroyed before by their allied allies of Prospero's destruction reached them: 2,000 under Sentor Rahme of the Ninth Fellowship were slaughtered in their encampments by the Ultramarines attached to the same force, and 300 Veterans of the Seventh Fellowship were abandoned to their deaths during the assault on Maktor VII by the Imperial Fists to name but two of the more prominent cases. 14 Age of Darkness (Anthology) edited by Christian Dunn, "Rules of Engagement" by Graham McNeill Know No Fear (Novel) by Dan Abnett Shadows of Treachery (Anthology) edited by Christian Dunn and Nick Kyme, "The Crimson Fist" by John French Angel Exterminatus (Novel) by Graham McNeill Vulkan Lives (Novel) (Digital Edition) by , pp. 6-9 Realms of Chaos: Slaves to Darkness, pp. 12-17 Horus Rising (Novel) by Dan Abnett Descent of Angels (Novel) by Michael Scanlon, pp. Leaving aside these unknown numbers operating alone in the outer darkness, the Raven Guard barely numbered around 4,000 effectives, including those despatched to garrison Delverone. As the war to unify Terra became a crusade to conquer the galaxy, the Legions grew. 235, 303 The First Heretic (Novel) by Aaron Dembski-Bowden Deliverance Lost (Novel) by Gav Thorpe, pg. This matter is further complicated by the fact that the size of the different Legions may vary based on source material or an author's lack of background information, which can result in conflicting numbers. In the end, the Horus Heresy made clear that no single commander could be trusted to wield the enormous power of a Space Marine Legion, never mind several at once. Legion Structure By the time of the outbreak of inter-Legionary hostilities during the Istvaan III atrocity, the command and organisational structure of a Space Marine Legion was often more a mirror of the character and preferences of its Primarch and its abiding culture than formal writ. V White Scars Star Hunters Loyalist The V Legion is believed to have comprised only 7,000 Astartes at the end of the Great Crusade, making it one of the smallest of the Space Marine Legions, if not the smallest. With the conclusion of the bitter fighting on Istvaan III, it is estimated that the XIV Legion had been reduced by well over 25,000 casualties, counting both the stubborn Terra Loyalists, betrayed to their deaths in the ash-mantled ruins of Istvaan II's Choral City, and Mortarion's sons of Barbarus whose lives had been spent to purchase their demise. This reasoning would be proven to be sadly mistaken, for all their seeming physical and mental perfection they were Human beings and prone to all sins of humanity, including greed, anger and lust for power, recognition and advancement, all emotions that made them susceptible to the temptations offered by the ruinous powers of chaos. 6-8 CODE: A Dark Niers (7am edition), pp. The whims of warp travel, astrophotic communication and volume of space through which the great crusade was released means that everything that is sure is that this account is not more than such an estimate plausible. [Note 2] I saw Space NO LOVE None Lealist At the time of the Great Crusade and Heresy Horus, the Legion VI comprised approximately 95,000 to 100,000 legionaries. Strongly committed to the surface of Istvaan III, it is estimated that some 30,000 children of Horus were dead or dehorned by that battle. [Note 1] XII World Eater Comers War Hounds Traitor 150,000 Astartes estimated at the XII Legion's Peak. Conversely, very specialized squads, such as recognition units or those who had suffered, low heavy, can only consist of a spatial marine engaged in active service. 12-13, 16-21, 24, 27 Warhammer 40,000: Book of Rules (7th Edition) Warhammer 40,000: Book of Rules (6th Edition) White Dwarf 166 (United Kingdom), "Space Marines: Community Imperialis Extract - Legions of Adeptus Astartes," by Andy Chambers & Rick Priestley, PP. Since they were all the first generation of Astartes, born of Terra, shared the footprint of their genetic forger and war, and it is not surprising that the members of the first legions are considered as brothers, as Brothers in arms. The legions of spatial marines and the primars of him were the main military force of the emperor and the most important directors of him, respectively, and were destined to be the end of the Great Crusade. In general, the canon for the size of the Space Marine Legions has been set in numbers in the low hundreds of thousands, using Alan Bligh's work in the La hereja de Horus series for Forge World as the definitive source. 14-16, 18-19 La hereja de Horus - Book Five: Alan Bligh's Tempest (Forge World Series), pg. Of all the major contingents of the Thousand Sons abroad in the galaxy, only two were known to have escaped from Imperial justice, the largest in the Fourth Community, some 5,000 Astartes who fled their assignment ³ the Great Crusade after hearing of the attack on PR ³ spero, and a force, perhaps several thousand, of the Sixth Community present in the Forge World of Zhao-Arkhad as part of the agreement between the XV Legiá ³ and that remote and enigmatic forge Mecá nico. Although its original name is unknown, the highly honored single name "Sons of the Emperor" was bestowed by the Emperor on the III Legiá ³ not only after a speech made by his Fulgrim Primarch so impressed the Emperor of Humanity that he bestowed that coveted nickname on the Legiá ³ n of Fulgrim. Legions Astrates The I Legiá ³ n Space Navy, the Dark Angels, gathered and awaiting departure for the Great Crusade A Legiá ³ n Space Navy was a force of first infanterA de choque comprising tens of thousands of armed and equipped transhumanist warriors with the best war equipment the Empire could supply. This was a matter that only got worse when the Great Crusade pushed further and further into the galaxy. This brings the total number to around 100,000 astarte. There are, of course, exceptions in whole or in part, as you can find within the Legions of the Ultramarines and Iron Warriors, who built rather than abandon what had happened before, as well as those like the Whites to whom the restrictions and precepts laid down by the Military Office no longer applied even notionally. The Raven Guard was going to lose almost the Astartes during the treachery known as the Massacre of the Siege of the Drop of Istvaan V, and by the end of the ninety-eight solar days that followed, could muster only a fraction of their former strength. VII Rogal Dorn Imperial Fists Terra / Inwit (Originally) Loyalist Believed killed during the 1st Black Crusade; skeletal remains preserved aboard the Phalanx in various chapels. Sadly, the numbers would be depleted and their primacy would end with solar decades of savage warfare, particularly in the Xenocidal Rangdan wars, one of the most apocalyptic campaigns of the Great Crusade. Sources and estimates vary greatly, some of them making outlandish claims that may overestimate or underestimate the Alpha Legion current ASTARTES created after the second foundation at the end of Horus's heresy, it could have between 10,000 and more than 250,000 spatial marines, as well as the imperial army associated with the legion, the logistic support forces and the elements of the Armed Imperialis Fleet. A force of one hundred of these transhuman warriors improved genitive and biochemically could stifle a rebellious city in solar hours. The first primarch that was Horus, rediscovered in the world of Khonia. Codex Fests: Black Templars (4th Ediciá ³ n) pg. The Emperor saw no problem with this He believed that the loyalty of the Primarchs to him was unwavering. XX Legion Alfa Ghost Legiön Traidora The exact figures of the martial strength of the alpha legion at the beginning of the wars of Horus heresy are impossible to obtain. Fulgrim reached the apotheosis during the heresy of Horus and was transformed by the will of the protective deity of him in a demon prince. After the campaign of him against the dark angels in the Thramas sector, the number of him had been reduced to some 10,000 legionaries. With the loss of 50,000 legionaries suffered during the third Xenocide of Rangdan, the Dark Americans no longer ensured the primacy on their legion companies and this figure had decreased and equalized. XV a thousand children no traitor estimated total force of perhaps 80,000-90,000 legionaries at the time of the fall of Próspero at 004.M31. I A DROYING THE FIRST LEAL Once was the largest and most powerful of the Legions of Space Marines, the conservative estimates placed the legion of the Dark Americans in approximately 200,000 legionaries at the beginning of the Grand Crusade. 24, 32, 65, 84 The Heresy of Horus - Book Eight: Malevolence (World Series Forge) by Neil Wylie and Anuj Malhotra, PP. 4-6 CODE: Spatial Wolves (7am edition), pp. The legions had the help of the Earth and Naval forces of the imperial army, predecessor of the current Astra Military and the Imperial Navy, but these forces served more often in support and garrisoning tasks, while combating MÁ S hard and the most important and most difficult missions were always carried out by the Astartes Legions. The primary of the goggles, Roboute Guilliman, led the reform of the post-heresy empire, which reconnected the legions of spatial Marines at the Asstartes Adeptus and divided each of the remaining legions of space marines loyal in the
